

Announcing the
20th Annual Division of Forensic Psychology Conference 2011

hosted by the University of Portsmouth
22nd, 23rd & 24th June 2011

Keynote Speakers:

Roy Baumeister, Florida State University
Free Will and Antisocial Behaviour

Ron Fisher, Florida International University
Inconsistency as a Predictor of Witnesses' Memory and Veracity

Rowell Huesmann, University of Michigan
The Relation of Habitual Aggression in Childhood and Adolescence to Adult Criminal and Antisocial Behaviour: Implications for Treatment and Practice

Jackie Craissati, Oxleas NHS Trust, London
Developing a Model for Understanding Success and Failure in Personality Disordered
Offenders in the Community

Invited Symposia led by:

Aldert Vrij, University of Portsmouth
Interview Strategies to Detect Lies

Lorraine Hope, University of Portsmouth
Going Further: The Psychology of Memory in Investigative Settings

Lawrence Jones, Rampton Hospital
Offence Paralleling Behaviour: Emerging Issues and Future Directions
(a pre-conference workshop on OPB will also be available)

For further details of the conference: www.port.ac.uk/dfp2011