Team of the Year Award – Multi-Agency

The judges are looking for multi-agency teams who work really well together across professional / agency boundaries to support children's speech, language and communication development.

Within your application, tell us what you do to achieve at least four of the following qualities we want to celebrate:

- Innovative practice across professional / agency boundaries to show how joined up approaches can help to identify and support children with SLCN
- What your team does to help make sure children with speech, language and communication needs are spotted early, either directly or through others
- Innovation as a multi-agency team to help others to understand and support children with SLCN
- The impact on practice of joint professional development / training
- Teams that can show how good multi-agency approaches can make a difference to service delivery and impact directly on children and young people

Good luck!

Hello* - the 2011 National Year of Communication

In the UK today, over 1 million children and young people have some form of speech, language and communication need. This can affect them severely and for life. In areas of poverty, over 50% of children start school with delayed language skills. This puts them at a huge disadvantage to their peers as they struggle to learn and make friends.

Hello is the national year of communication – a campaign to increase understanding of how important it is for children and young people to develop good communication skills. The campaign is run by The Communication Trust, a coalition of over 35 leading voluntary sector organisations; in partnership with Jean Gross, the Government's Communication Champion.

The campaign seeks to support you wherever you are – in your school, nursery, health centre, parent and baby group or local authority – to help improve the communication skills of children and young people in your area so that they can fulfil their potential..

Hello aims to make communication for all children and young people a priority in homes and schools across the UK so that they can live life to the full. BT and Pearson Assessment are sponsoring Hello and the campaign is backed by the Department for Education and the Department of Health.
