

Shine a Light Awards

The Shine a Light Awards are back with brand new categories for 2012

PRIMARY SCHOOL SETTING OF THE YEAR

The search is on for best practice and excellence in children and young people's communication!

- Do you work in a primary school doing great work to improve the speech, language and communication skills of the children you work with?
- Do you work to ensure that children with speech, language and communication needs are spotted early and supported?

This award is open to all primary schools and will help you showcase more of your school's excellent practice around supporting children's communication development.

- Have you focused on the speech, language and communication skills of all children and worked to make sure children who may be struggling with these skills are spotted early and supported?
- Have you worked to involve parents in supporting the development of their children's communication skills?
- Have you developed partnerships with other professionals or agencies to support children's communication development in your setting?

For more information and to apply please log on to www.shinealightawards.co.uk

The deadline is Friday 21st September so don't delay!

Winners will be announced at an awards ceremony in London in November 2012
