

Shine a Light Awards

The Shine a Light Awards are back with brand new categories for 2012

SECONDARY SCHOOL SETTING OF THE YEAR

The search is on for best practice and excellence in supporting children and young people's communication!

- Do you work in a secondary school or college doing great work to improve the speech, language and communication skills of the young people you work with?
- Do you work to make sure that young people with speech, language and communication needs are spotted early and supported?

This award is open to all secondary schools and colleges. It can help you showcase your settings excellent practice around supporting young people's communication development, such as:

- How your setting has worked to focus on the language and communication development of young people
- The policies and strategies in place to recognise and support students' speech, language and communication needs
- Your work involving parents in supporting the development of their children's communication skills
- The partnerships that you have built with other professionals or agencies to support young people's communication development

For more information and to apply please log on to www.shinealightawards.co.uk

The deadline is Friday 21st September so don't delay!

Winners will be announced at an awards ceremony in London in November 2012