

TERMS AND CONDITIONS

Shine a Light awards for developing children and young people's communication 2012

1. These competition rules shall be binding upon entering the Shine a Light awards for developing children and young people's communication 2012.
2. The competition is promoted by Pearson Education Limited of Edinburgh Gate, Harlow Essex CM20 2JE registered number 872828 ("Pearson"), and The Communication Trust 8 Wakley Street, London, EC1V 7QE. Enquiries relating to the competition (including enquiries about the name of the eventual winner or the personal data collected about the name of the eventual winner or the personal data collected about you as a result of your entry) should be addressed to "Shine a Light Award 2012" and sent to Pearson Assessment at the following address: Pearson Assessment, 80 Strand, London WC2R 0RL. Entrant details provided will be used only for informing winners of results and will thereafter be destroyed, unless wider use has been permitted by the entrant. Pearson reserves the right to disclose the name of the winner on request from a third party.
3. Entrants must be aged 16 or over and a resident in the UK to enter any category, excluding the Young Person of the Year award.
4. Entrants applying for the Young Pearson of the Year award must no older than 19 years old and a resident in the UK.
5. Employees, agents, contractors or consultants of Pearson, or their families or anyone connected to the competition are not eligible.
6. Only one entry per category per person or team is permitted. Automated entries will be invalidated, including multiple entries from the same IP.
7. Entrants can enter for more than one category.
8. A discretionary award will be awarded by the judges for outstanding achievement.
9. To be entered into the competition, entrants must complete their details in the manner specified and entries must be submitted with an original completed Application Form.
10. After preliminary screening, it may be determined by the judges that a site visit is necessary to determine a finalist.
11. Proof of sending post/e-mail/SMS, making a phone call or completing an online entry, is not proof of our receipt of your entry. Pearson/The Communication Trust is not responsible for entries that are lost, delayed or damaged or for problems with entries outside its control.
12. Each entry must be the entrant's own original work and must not include anyone else's material. Each entrant agrees to indemnify Pearson from and against any and all liability arising from their entry infringing any third party intellectual property rights (including without limitation copyright) being defamatory, libellous, or otherwise unlawful.
13. The panel of judges will be announced at www.shinealightawards.co.uk in due course.

14. The winning entry will be that which the judges determine, in their absolute discretion, shows the most evidence according to the category criteria and demonstrate outstanding achievement, excellence, innovation and willingness to be a Shine a Light winner 2012.
15. Pearson shall not be liable for any damage, loss or disappointment suffered by any person taking part or not being able to take part in a competition.
16. The winning entrants will receive an award and certificate. The two runner-ups will each receive a certificate.
17. No alternative prizes may be requested although Pearson reserves the right to alter arrangement or prizes should this be unavoidable. There is no cash alternative and the prize is non-transferable.
18. All entries must be received by 11.59 (UK time) 10th October 2012 (the 'Closing Date'). All eligible entries received by the closing date have an equal chance of winning. Entries not submitted in accordance with the rules or incomplete or illegible entries will be disqualified.
19. The judges' decision is final and no correspondence will be entered into. The winner will be notified on the day of the Award ceremony – 21 November 2012.
20. It is a condition of entry that any winner consents to their name and country of residence to be published on the website for 100 days. Competition winners may be required to take part on or co-operate with post-event publicity.
21. Competition winners agree to keep confidential any knowledge about Pearson and its business and personnel received by them as a result of the competition.
22. Use of false name, or address, e.g. name by which the entrant is not usually known, will disqualify them from receiving any prize. Pearson and The Communicator Trust reserves the right to oblige any potential winner to provide documentary proof of their identity and address as directed by Pearson before such person may claim their prize.
23. We will keep your personal details for a reasonable time so that we can send you any prize that you have won, to verify that these rules have been complied with and for accounting purposes. We may pass your details to our service providers and agents for the purposes of sending you the prize on our behalf.
24. By entering this competition you confirm that you have read and agree to our Legal Policy and Privacy Policy.
25. These rules are governed by the law of England and Wales.
26. In the event of unforeseen circumstances the promoter reserves the right to alter, amend or foreclose the competition without prior notice.
27. We reserve the right to amend these rules at any time. By entering any competition all participants will be deemed to have accepted and be bound by the rules and by any other requirements set out in the competition material.
