1 Universal Screening

Education professionals can use the SSIS Performance Screening Guide to identify each student's performance level using criterion-referenced performance ratings for prosocial behaviour, motivation to learn, reading skills and maths skills.

2 Universal Intervention

Education professionals can use the Classwide Intervention Program to work on 10 of the most important social skills in 5 major prosocial behaviour areas. Use the student booklets & lesson plans to incorporate the program into your normal curriculum.

3 Universal Monitoring

Education professionals can use the SSIS Performance Screening Guide to quickly and conveniently evaluate & monitor progress on the targeted skill areas.

4 Indepth & Targeted Assessment

The Social Skills Rating Scales allow evaluation of students whose academic & social skills are below expectations. It provides baseline assessment for targeting behaviours for intervention; post-intervention & progress assessment.

5 Indepth & Targeted Intervention

Specialist teachers, psychologists & other qualified professionals can use the SSIS Intervention Guide to conduct & implement targeted intervention strategies directly related to the SSIS Rating results.

Evidence-based tools for assessing & teaching social skills that lead to social and academic success.