Only £132.20 per license/year

An annual subscription per student or staff member gives access to Pearson's most popular assessments digitally via our Q-global and Q-interactive platforms.

With the increased need for remote learning, as well as face-to-face assessments not always possible at University clinics, we've made a few of our most popular digital test manuals and stimulus books available on our Q-global and Q-interactive platforms.

The Digital Assessment Library for Universities (DALU) will provide a remote teaching solution for university course leaders, plus give students and staff the ability to practice assessments via a telehealth platform and also review assessment content online in their own time.

This simple annual subscription will give staff and students access to some of Pearson's most popular Psychology digital test manuals and stimulus material on Q-global and Q-interactive.
